Thinking Out Loud

(By H. M. L.)

"Pride," saith the Good Book, "goeth before a fall." This probably refers to individuals rather than to all kinds of pride. Pride when it is self-respect is generally regarded as a virtue. Pride in accomplishment, provided it is not overweening, is also numbered among good things.

These reflections preceed a consideration of the Boy Scout organization and its maintenance in this city. There is a council of some thirty five men who direct its activities. They must find the money for a large part of its expenses. President Roosevelt has called the Boy Scouts to a National Jamboree at Washington. Some 30,000 boys will be there from all parts of the nation. To those boys who, are fortunately selected for this trip, the experience should be little short of a college education, for they will see, meet and mingle with boys of many different personalities and upbringing, and should bring back with them new ideals of citizenship, and a new zest for work in the organization of which they are members.

The Boy Scout council faced with an immediate problem of providing a considerable part of the money needed to defray the expenses of the two boys who will represent Scout troops and the Cubs at the great National Jamboree ,must needs call on the entire population, or at least the card playing part of it, to help them do their job, which is, it must be remembered an entirely voluntary job on their part. Otherwise their pride in bringing the Boy Scouts to the present standard of excellence, "goeth before a fall."

This is no time to falter, to question the President's wisdom in convoking this great assemblage of boys, before actual recovery from the depression, at the National Capitol, or find other faults with the project. This is the time when all those who take pride in the really remarkable achievements of a small community in making life better in it, among other things making better citizens of our boys, to come out and play cards for the benefit of the Scouts on July 31 and August 7, as the Scout Council committee urges and invites them to do. The Scout Council, since it is a voluntary organization, giving a great deal of its time and its best thought to Scout matters and believing enthusiastically in the good it accomplishes for boys, now needs the firm support and moral backing of the entire community. Let not their pride go before a fall.

Really most of the pills which we swallow in connection with supporting those extra things, outside the scope of projects paid out of taxes, are so well coated with sugar, that none need feel specially mulcted, while swallowing. The card parties to be given for instance for the benefit of the Boy Scouts, really offer an evening's pleasure for a mere two bits. The big water pageant to be given next Friday evening at the municipal pool, will be worth anyone's 25 cents, and more. The great carnival and fiesta to be given in North San Juan by the Ridge folks the middle of August will provide a very welcome diversion for hundreds of folks and at very small cost,

Of course, every commuity does have civic pride, otherwise none would make any especial progress or growth. It may be nothing more than that which actuates some individuals "to keep up with the Jonses." But in the main it is a determination to make one's home town the best little town that circumstances will permit, with a reasonable regard for limitations of population and average wealth. When these limitations are considered, in various relations to community life in Nevada City, it is apparent that much of the progress and the cost of carrying on devolves upon a comparative few of its citizens, who volunteer ,through civic pride to do those things, which in larger cities are done more easily and at lesc cost relatively to individual donors.

The time is not far distant, perhaps, when we shall have a Community Chest to care for Boy Scouts, to provide funds for the Benevolent Society, for the Red Cross and the Salvation Army, and such other activities or organizations as now regularly make their solicitation, one treading, it would seem, on the heels of another. When that time comes there will be one annual solicitation, and instead of swallowing a dozen pills a short intervals we shall swallow a single large bolus and be done with charities for the year. We earnestly recommend this subject to the Nevada City Chamber of Commerce.

Prominent Liquor Dealers Arrested

Revenue officers today made a check of liquor establishments in Nevada City and made several arrests, mainly because of infractions of the law regarding destruction of revenue stamps when packages are opened. Most o thfe violations were due to ignorance, some of them to negligence and one or two apparently, with the intention of using the same container again with the stamps intact.

Establishments whose proprietors were arrested in Nevada City were My Place, Nevada City Tavern, Zoritsch place in Sacramento street, Smith's Package Store, Bret Harte Cigar Store, Old Brewery Cafe and Montana Cafe.

Russell B. Farley, county liquor administrator for the State Board of Equalization arrested the operator at Gene's Place for having distilled spirits in his possession without the state excise stamps attached and cancelled. Judge Walter Mobley fined him $75 this morning.

FIVE IN RACE FOR SAN JUAN FIESTA'S QUEEN

There are five candidates, thus far, for queen of the San Juan Ridge Fiesta, which takes place August 17 and 18 at North San Juan. Entries in this contest will close tomorrow night at 5 p. m. Those who wish to enter are requested to mail their application to, or to see, Mrs. Christian Andersen at Red Men's park before the closing hour. Applications may be mailed to Mrs. Andersen at box 295, Nevada City.

Those already in the contest are Miss Beth Young and Dorothy Thomas both of Nevada City, and Miss Adele Cunningham of North San Juan, Miss Lucille Browning of French Corral and Miss Lois Davis of Forest City.

The actual contest will begin tomorrow morning when a certain number of merchants have agreed to give free votes for candidates away with every 25 cents purchase. Window cards will designate the places in which these votes may be obtained.

Rules for entrance in the contest require that candidates must be unmarried and from 16 to 25 years of age. There will be valuable prizes offered the winner, and those who do not win will also receive prizes and honors. All will be guests of the management during the fiesta, and all will be given important roles in the queen's retinue.

NEW GAME LAWS IN EFFECT SEPT.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 22.—New fish and game laws, passed at the recently closed legislative session will not go into effect until September 15, unless they carried an "urgency clause." Anglers and hunters who are interested in the new regulations are advised of this fact by Herbert C. Davis, executive officer of the Division of Fish and Game, Department of Natural Resources.

Following many requests as to the interpretation of new laws, Mr. Davis said:

"Quite a number of changes in the Fish and Game Code have been made by this session of the legislature. With the exception of one bill prohibiting the use of fresh water trout spawn for bait, which passed with an urgency clause and became law when it was signed by the governor, all others will not become effective until ninety days after adjournment of the legislature.

"In order to avoid confusion, it will be the policy of this office not to give out information on the new legislation until all of the bills have been signed by the governor. There are so many bills, that the signing of some subsequent bill might cancel the provisions of one bill already signed."

Miss Frances Davey and brother, Harry, Jr., who have been making a month's tour of the United States arrived home Saturday night by way of the Redwood highway.

MAD PASSENGER ALMOST STEERS BUS INTO LAKE

Neil McCue, passenger on the Greyhound line, making the trip from Chicago to San Francisco, endangered the lives of the driver and twenty-four passengers of his bus when he went amuck early this morning as the bus was passing Donner Lake. McCue, who had been drinking, grabbed the steering wheel over the shoulder of the driver and tried to turn the bus down the steep incline into Donner Lake. Reverend A. French of Sharpsburg, Pennsylvania, was credited by fellow passengers with saving their lives when by wrestling with the demented man preventing him from overpowering the driver unsil the but was brought to a stop only four feet from the waters edge.

Other men passengers combined their efforts to subdue the crazed man until Highway Patrolman C. E. McKeen and Deputy Sheriff Tom Dolly took McCue in custody and placed him in the Truckee jail on an open charge. In jail, the erstwhile madman, bade no trouble, but stared vacantly before him, not hearing questions addressed to him.

He gave as the reason for his action, "everybody was laughing at me because I had trouble with my ticket."

BANG UP SHOWS AT NEV. THEATRE

The Nevada Theatre boasts two excellent pictures for the early part of the week—Monday and Tuesday, "Gold Diggers of 1935" will be the show, and Wednesday and Thursday "Black Fury" will be shown. "Gold Diggers of 1935" is another first rate musical from Warner Brothers. The first since 1933—and twice as big as any of the others! A gay fun show, sparkling with stars—bursting with laughs—sizzling with romance—and bubbling over with romping rythm! This picture has one of the largest casts of stars in the history of musical comedies on the screen—Dick Powell. Gloria Stuart, Adolphe Menjou, Alice Brady, Glenda Farrell, Hugh Herbert, Frank McHugh, Joe Cawthorn, Grant Mitchell, and three hundred of Busby Berkeley Beauties in "Lullaby of Broadway" and other spectacular musical numbers.

LOST HILL WILL FIRE FIRST GUN IN SCOUT DRIVE

The card party campaign to raise funds for sending two boy scouts to the National Jamboree in Washington in August will start next Wednesday evening when Mrs. Elza Kilroy will be hostess to a great gathering of Scout friends on Lost Hill. Mrs. Kilroy anticipates eighty players will share in the evening fun. Fifteen tables have already been sold. Tickets to this affair and to all the card parties including the private parties scheduled for July 31, and the great community party August 7 in Armory hall, will be 25 cents each.

Warren Chapman who was scheduled to attend the Washington Jamboree, has withdrawn largely owing to the fact that the campaign committee feels it cannot raise enough funds to assist three boys to make the trip and he expects to go to West Point in the near future. Albert Pratti and Dick Marriott, the other boys, are working energetically to pile up funds to pay a large part of their expenses. All tthree boys are scout leaders of high standing and the committee beelieves they will give Nevada City Scouts and Cubs a splendid representation at Washington, D. C.

FIRE FIGHTERS HAVE BUSY WEEK

Supervisor R. L. P. Bigelow of the Tahoe National Forest stated this morning all fires of the last few days are under control.

At Remington Hill where fire at Big Tunnel broke out, 72 men were on the fighting lines Sunday and this morning the number was cut to fifty. The forest service brought their big pumpers into service using the P. G. & E. ditch system for water to wet down the hill sides near Big Tunnel. There were at different times 380 men on the fire, which lasted two days and burned over 400 acres.

Fifty men were sent into the American River canyon to fight a stubborn fire there. They have it completely out.

A large forest service truck loaded with steel for McKillican bridge, above North Bloomfield, passed through Nevada City today. Work has so far progressed that the crews are about ready for placing of the steel. It will take six weeks or two months more to complete this bridge.

State Ranger William F. Sharp, who is in charge of the SERA camp at Nevada City's southern limits, states the series of fires in state forests are practically all out. He has been kept on the jump almost day and night in the last few days having had more than a fire a day.

Last Sunday, July 14 there was a brisk grass fire on the Horan ranch near Newtown; Monday a small one at Lake Vera north of Nevada City; Tuesday it is stated a fire started from sparks from the narrow gauge railroad on Gold Flat, burning a small acreage; Wednesday a fire flared up on the White Ranch at Peardale, and on the same day a fire on the Demieville ranch 12 miles southwest of Nevada City in the Cottage Hill section, raised immense clouds of smoke which with ashes and cinders were carried into Nevada City. This fire burned over considerable territory and was controlled Thursday. On Friday fire broke out on the Dobbins' place on Magnolia road on Bear River, and a small forest blaze called men to the area above the Murchie mine east of this city. There were forty men on the Dobbins fire.

Saturday Sharp took a crew to the Bert Hawke ranch, north of Nevada City on the Downieville highway near the Yuba river, to take care of a barn fire. Mr. Hawke lost his home by fire six weeks ago and was living in his barn when it caught fire and was destroyed.

Mr. Sharp stated CCC men were called from the DeSabla Camp in Butte county to fight the Downieville fire. Men were also called from Colfax and Auburn to fight fires in the southern part of the county during the week. The building of a telephone line from the local state camp to Howell Hill has been delayed for several days an account of the men all being called out on fires.

King Neptune Heads Water Pageant Cast

Addison Janes, life guard and aquatic empresario of the municipal pool, this morning gave a brief synopsis of the water drama, "Showing Neptune," which will be given there next Friday evening at 8 p. m.

King Neptune his face clothed in long gray whiskers, in his hand a bristling trident, enters the scene on his royal barge surrounded by his favorite mermaids all of beautious mein and flowing grace. Two mighty tritons will guard him in his voyage around the pool.

The barge will dock and Neptune will address the assembly, gathered on the etrraces. He will demand the reason for building this pool.

There will then appear before Neptune a swimmer with powerful arms and muscular torso, who will summon a group of the most expert swimmers in the realm. He will instruct them to show Neptune "swimming for health." The swimmers then execute various evolutions in the water, including a grand march in twos, four and eights. They will then demonstrate the various swimming sports in good form.

A stalwart life saver will then appear and demonstrate "swimming for safety, for sport and for fun." A water clown will appear and do his comic stunts in the water, and the swimming coach will illustrate the lessons given swimmers in the pool.

As a climax to this demonstration one of the expert divers will mount the high diving platform and with kerosene burning over his body will de the spectacular fire dive, which is expected to arouse, even Neptune to applause. Enveloped in flame this bold spirit plunges sizzling into the cool water of the pool.

Neptune having been "shown" finally declares his willingness to accept the pool as part of his great domain and dives into the pool, to eturn by a subterranean channel to his underwater palace.

Tickets to this great show are 25 cents each. They are on sale at The Nevada City Nugget office, the Harris and the Dickerman Drug stores, and at the municipal pool. Only a limited number of tickets remain to be sold and those who desire to attend Nevada City's first water pageant are urged to get theirs at once.

Mussolini Will Fight

Mussolini is out to take a slice of Abyssinia, or perhaps to establish some sort of control over the whole country, and that is that, so far as he is concerned. What the rest of the world thinks about it cuts little figure. He told Captain Anthony Eden, the British master of international intrigue—sometimes known as diplomacy — that he would not even consider a British gift of a slice of Ethiopian territory. He told an American newspaper correspondent he was going ahead on a principle of conquest long followed by all nations, the United States included. He even brushed aside the possibility he may not succeed against a million courageous, fiercely loyal Abyssinian warriors entrenched in an eenvironment understood only by themselves. There is no stopping Mussolini. What worries the world is whether this can remain an isolated conquest, or whether it will plunge all of Europe into the maw of war. And what worries the United States is whether this country can stay out, if Europe is plunged in.

Whether or not Mussolini's war, if it does occur, will drag Europe in depends upon various ever-shifting forces. One argument has it that while Italian military strength is concentrated abroad, the Balkans will get out of hand, or Austria will fall a prey to Hitler. Should either of these things happen, war would be as good as under way. But Mussolini contends they will not happen. His argument is that Italy has a fighting machine perfectly capable of keeping things in hand at home and abroad at the same time. By way of convincing the world of this, he is planning the greatese demonstration of military might that Italy has ever known. It will extend from one end of the country to the other, will fill the streets with up-to-the-minute fighting men, and the air with up-to-the-minute fighting machines. Another possible spark is the the Abyssinian request for aid from Japan. Although it is not likely, should Japan respond this would in turn involve Russia, who must fight Japan eventually anyway—which would in turn involve France and Poland, who have agreements with Russia, et cetera and infinitum. War is coming, eventually. This may not be it. And then again it may.

WHEN?

When Music, heavenly maid was young,
And her first lyre was deftly tuning,
She'd never heard Bing's quavering croon
Or Rudy's very mawkish crooning.

When History first felt the urge
To tabulate the world's essentials,
No mortal knew a single thing
About our sturdy fundamentals.

When Poetry began to fume
And roll her eyes in frenzy fine,
Was it because prophetically
She caught a glimpse of Gertrude Stein?

When Drama stepped upon the boards
And sundry masks began to wear,
There was no star in all the land
Like our comedian, Maxie Baer.

Terpsichore with flashing heels
Cavorted on the shores of Greece,
Without the aid of rude jazz bands
That blare and blare without surcease.

Yet in some way those infant arts
Contrived to live and muddle through,
And many a shock they have survived
Since they and this old earth were new.

—A MERRIAM CONNER.

WEEKLY COMMENT

BY

Christian Andersen

The time for thank yous and felicitation to one's fellow workers is usually left until after a project is finished and in the bag then it is that all names are mentioned and the thanks issued. I should like to reverse that custom. Having been selected to direct the San Juan Fiesta was an honor and the duties thereof will be performed with all my energy but I want it known that behind all the mentions of my name, in connection there is an army of merchants and workers who even more than any one else deserve public acclaim.

These people are doing their share of whatever there is to do in the heat of the day and the cool of the evening all with their heart and soul in this interesting community effort. Therefore, now and here, let me acknowledge to them and to the public in general that these behind the scenes workers deserve and should receive praise and consideration for their splendid cooperation, and I humbly stand aside with my hat off so that the spotlight of due credit may fall on my coworkers.

My mind is so full of the San Juan Fiesta that nothing else presents itself, for expression. Part of the night I am planning the amateur hour, the queen contests and all the other details which must be definitely taken into consideration in a show of this magnitude. San Juan has had and is still having it's troubles about the water question (which will solve many economic problems.) It was mentioned by one misinformed writer as a ghost town, which it is not in any sense. San Juan is set like a diadem in the voluptuous crown of the Sierra foothills. It's people have overcome many bitter disappointments and are still carrying on. Is was my privilege and honor to meet and converse with one of North San Juan's famous daughters whose dauntless spirit seems to me representative of North San Juan. I speak of Mrs. A. Merriam Conner, whose heart is entwined in this small community. Mrs. Conner graciously consented to let us use one of her poems for the front of our souvenir program. It is spirits like Mrs. Conner, and there are not too many, who preserve and keep sacred the memories of the past and who forge ahead to new accomplishments.

Haille Selassie the Emperor of Ethiopia has declared himself in no uncertain terms regarding the Italian episode. He does not say as did Patrick Henry 'give me liberty or give me death." But no matter what the words, the cry echoes down the world's history with the same vehemence. The word liberty spreads a soft glowing feeling in the human spirit. In some cases it has been found to be a will-'o-the-wisp sort of thing and most of the time true liberty cannot be had.

Money for money itself has become the master of humanity's liberty. Until we find an eequitable way to use money for what it can do there can be no true liberty. No panacea so far advanced has been in any sense a cure for our monetary ills and there is one thing as certain as death and taxes, viz: human security cannot be assured until we cease to accept money as something besides a medium of exchange.

Were I to choose a means of travel from one place to another it would be by the slowest method available as for instance a coastwise steamer stopping at every port. For when in a hurry one does not fill the eye with local color nor do the nostrils sense the smells associated with different locales. By fast travel I arrive at a destination quickly, but by a slow conveyance I gather all the romance and associations. Maybe you have a second hand burro I can borrow.

CAMP PAHATSI SCENE OF BUSY SCOUT ACTIVITY

The first week of scout camp was closed successfully with 175 visitors witnessing the installation of the new officers for Tahoe Chapter, Number 9, Knights of Dunamis, National Eagle Scout Association.

Among the activities of the week were eight patrol overnight hikes, one camp overnight hike to Devil's Peak in which 46 scouts and leaders participated, a patrol visit to the weather bureau station at Donner Summit, another patrol visit to the Southern Pacific interlocking plant at Norden, a five day fishing and hiking trip by older campers, and the weekly honor tribe initiation of 35 campers.

The five day hikers, led by Mr. M. S. "Klondike Ike" Beecher, visited a partially new territory. Entering the American River Gorge from the Lost Emigrant Mine, several days were spent in fishing and hiking, and a nice mess of trout was brought back to camp.

All of the patrols worked diligently during the week to get the right to visit the interlocking plant at Norden and the U. S. Weather Bureau. The former honor was attained by Harry Twitchell's patrol for having earned the most camp honors during the week. The latter trip was gained by Robert Hansen's patrol for having passed the most scout tests. Both trips were highly educational and greatly enjoyed by the scouts. The patrol overnight hikes were participated in by all those who had the camp doctor's permission, and were uneventful except that they provided the opportunity to practice camping and to put into use the instructions given Monday morning in camp prior to the trip.

The camp overnight trip led by seven members of the camp staff took the boys to the lake country surrounding Devil's Peak where the scouts camped overnight, climbing the peak in the morning.

From the top, twenty eight lakes were visible. On the descent the scouts enjoyed their first summer contact with snow and a merry snow fight ensued.

The Tribe of Pahatsi met for the first time this year to initiate new members and to advance former members in rank. This was done Saturday night following camp fire. This initiation culminated in having the largest group of tribesmen ever in camp at one time. All former tribe chiefs returned Saturday night to camp for the initiation. Entrance into this honor society is earned only through service to others or outstanding service to camp. ,

The new officers of the Knights of Dunamis were formally installed by national officer Sam Partridge of Grass Valley, and Jeff Mooers of Grass Valley, former commander acting as master of ceremonies. The officers installed were Ralph Herman, commander; Paul Brundage, senior councillor; Jack Schultz, Junior Councillor; Eric Beckerleg, secretary; Ken Schultz, treasurer; Jack Gordon and Roy Berry, board of governors; Vincent Brundage, senior guide; Ken Dunn, junior guide; Inner guard, George Decater; Don Flynn, outer guard.

Following the ceremony short talks were made by Harris Ricksecker, patrol general and scout executive; W. H. Seaver, scout commissioner and C. W. Ramsey of Colfax, both honorary members of the order.

A musical program was provided by William Perry and Harry Twitchell, scout campers from Grass Valley.

Sunday the American Legion provided a treat in the way of ice cream which was enthusiastically received by the scouts.

The camp weather chart shows an average temperature of 80 degrees with the water in the lake an average temperature of 71 degrees. Weather for the past week has been clear with the exception of Sunday.

The Pahatsi Press, the camp newspaper, has been edited daily by Eric Beckerleg.

Enrollment of campers for the present week shows a drop to 61 from 70 following the cub week enrollment of 85. There are still vacancies for the third week. A number of first week campers plan to return for the third week to complete scout tests.

MOUNTAINEER PROPERTY

It is understood a run of 75 tons of ore mined by leasors on the Mountaineer mine property which is a part of the old Champion mine west of Nevada City's city limits, has been taken to the Idaho Maryland mine mill for treating.

LOWEST TAX RATE IN HISTORY OF NEVADA COUNTY

The tax rate for the ensuing fiscal year for all Nevada county will be $1.40 both inside and outside municipalities as determined by the Board of Supervisors after considering the approved budgets of the county officers. The rate is based on the assessed valuation as determined by County Assessor John M. Hammill.

To this will be added special taxes for certain school districts which will be decided upon when school budgets are submitted by the school boards.

This is the lowest tax rate Nevada county has ever had.

FRUIT OUTLOOK IN NEV. COUNTY 50 PCT. NORMAL

Nevada county's fruit outlook for the 1935 season is but 50 percent of a normal crop at best, Garvin Mitchell, Manager of the Colfax Fruit Growers Association of Grass Valley and Colfax declared at the Grass Valley Rotary Club meeting recently.

While the yield in some orchards will be as high as 60 percent, Mitchell declares that other orchards have only 40 percent, or less of what is accustomed and stated that he thought 50 percent would be an ample figure.

The fruit, pears and plums, set magnificently in the early spring, but the continued rain of March and April held the blossoms constantly damp and they became bedraggled and fell off with imperfect pollenization.

Apples and cherries had a better percentage, but neither are raised in commercial quantities in this area.

While the fruit output will be small, Mitchell expects the prices to be better than fair, returning some money to those shippers able to send out considerable volume.

A. M. TOM
HERB SPECIALIST

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:—
For years I was a sufferer from constipation. My blood was out of order and my kidneys and bladder bothered me terribly causing dreadful back-aches. On top of all this I had female trouble.
I tried several doctors but none helped me. One recommended an operation which I dreaded as a previous operation did not help me.
One day my husband noticed A. M. Tom's advertisement and suggested that I visit him. Having taken Herb treatments for five weeks, I am well again, and able to go back to work.
I cannot praise A. M. Tom too highly and if you are suffering I honestly recommend you to see him as I know what he has done for me, he can do for others.

California Farm Power Rates lowest in Nation

AGRICULTURE AIDED BY ELECTRICITY
CHEAP IN COST—AVAILABLE EVERYWHERE

THE PROOF—U. S. Census of Electrical Industries:

1 California average rate for farm power . . Per kwh 1.5 cents
National average rate for farm power . . 2.8 cents
(Figures based on revenue from consumers)

2 Apply the same test to any state:

California	1.5	cents per kwh
New Hampshire	7.2	" " "
New York	6.4	" " "
Illinois	7.0	" " "
Michigan	4.6	" " "
Missouri	6.6	" " "
Kansas	5.7	" " "
Georgia	6.1	" " "

Other states show the same great differences; some report higher average rates than those here quoted; none lower than California.

3 California farms use 63 per cent of all agricultural power consumed in the United States but pay less than 33 per cent of the total national bill for farm service.

THE REASON . . . electricity is cheaper in California.

Sixty per cent of all farms in this state use electricity, more than in any other state. Electric power has brought effciency, increased production, larger money returns to agriculture. It has freed the farmer from drudgery and in his home has given him all the comforts and conveniences offered by modern electrical appliances.

GUILTY DRIVER IS SENTENCED

Judge Raglan Tuttle pronouncing sentence on Richard Williams, Jr., convicted last Wednesday by jury of manslaughter and drunken driving, on Friday morning pronounced the following sentence:

First: That the defendant serve one year in the county jail and is hereby committed to the county jail for that period.

Second: That he reimburse the county for all expenses incurred in the trial.

Third: That he reimburse the parents of the Miller boy for all funeral expenses and medical expenses; this to be done within sixty days.

Fourth: The defendant's operator's license will be permanently revoked.

The terms of probation will extend over a period of six years from this date. During that time the terms of probation will provide that this defendant will not indulge in intoxicating liquor in any manner, shape or form. When I say that, I mean just that. If this defendant breaches that particular provision of his probation just once he will find himself on the way to San Quentin; that is final. Of course, the defendant will refrain from all violations of the law and conduct himself as a good citizen and comply with the other usual terms which will be fixed by the probation officer.

NEW OSBORNE HOME IS OPEN FOR INSPECTION

The beautiful new J. K. Dsborne home on Town Talk ridge which has been opened for public inspection had several hundred visitors yesterday. The contractor, Paul P. Opdyke of Sacramento was present to explain various features to those interested. A representative from Hales of Sacramento was there to discuss furniture and decorations.

The visitors all pronounced the home and furnishings "just perfect." Throughout the house is a harmonizing arrangement of furniture and draperies, a symposium of beauty and convenience. The built-in features have been placed with every thought for the busy housekeeper.

The furnishings done by Hale Bros. are of the finest and most artistic quality. Of note in the entrance hall is the heavy carved chest and an old type Joshaghah rug.

In the drawing room is an old type Kashan Oriental rug in the softest colors and a three piece antique green velour chesterfield set. A Duncan Phyfe dining room set in mahogany and a Kardak rug are featured in the dining room.

Each of the three bedrooms is a gem. One has an all white antique finish three piece set with Nanity Angora goat hair rugs. One has an inlaid walnut twin bed set and an Hispani rug.

The third, a two tone bed room, with gold draperies, bed spread and a jade green Champion rug.

The kitchen will delight every housewife's heart, with its tiled sink and drainboards and Armstrong linoleum rug. The bathroom is also tiled, in orchid green and black.

The garden was landscaped by the Felix Gillet Nursery of Nevada City and many comments were made about the tasteful arrangement of paths, lawns and shrubs.

FORMER RESIDENT ENJOYS VISIT HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Draper of Park Avenue had as guests Wednesday, Mrs. E. S. Hathaway and daughter, Miss Jessie Hathaway, who are visiting relatives and former friends in Nevada City and Grass Valley. Mrs. Draper motored about visiting many scenes familiar to her guests, as both are former residents.

Mrs. Hathaway stated that as a little girl, then Emma Palmer, she arrived in Nevada City from New York in January 1857. She grew to womanhood here, married and reared her family in this city. She taught school in Nevada county 25 years, 19 of which were in Nevada City.

About 25 years ago she went to reside with her sister, Mrs. Chris Weisenberger, at Ashland, Oregon, and lived there until her sister's death. She then joined her daughter, now Rev. Jessie Hathaway, an ordained elder of the Wesleyan Methodist church, at Sunland, southern California, which is still their home. Mrs. Hathaway and daughter are visiting Mrs. Hathaway's son, R. L. Hathaway, in Grass Valley and Mrs. G. C. Shaw, and will later visit the C. R. Murchies in this city.

Rev. Miss Jessie Hathaway will occupy the pulpit at the Methodist church July 21, in the absence of Rev. H. H. Buckner.

TELLS HOW BANKS AIDED PROGRESS

Economist Describes the Ways Banking Institutions Have Contributed to Development of United States

OMAHA, Nebr.—Privately owned banking, despite its faults, has served America well, William A. Irwin, Professor of Economics, Washburn College, Topeka, Kansas, declared in a recent address here on "Banking in a Changing World."

"Under the leadership of individuals banking has helped to bring this country to a foremost place in economic development among the nations of the world," he said. "The small community has been developed by the individual bank. The frontiers of America have been pushed forward by the help and counsel of the individual banker. The shocks of wars and depressions in a century and a half have been withstood with the assistance of the individual banker.

Change May Be Necessary

"It may be that we have reached a tide in the affairs of America when new methods are needed. It may be that we have come to a point where the individual should be submerged for 'the greatest good of the greatest number.'

"It may even be that complete centralization of the banking system has become an economic necessity in our complicated social life. But the banker ought to be satisfied that these things are so before he should give up his fight for the system we have known. We came to greatness under that kind of banking; we should not give it up without unmistakable proof of the absolute necessity of such a change."

The American Pattern

Professor Irwin said that the proposal which has been advanced for coordinating banking operations in the national interest under "a 'Supreme Court' for banking is typically American and ought to have the most serious consideration of those elements which are clamoring for political control, which is typically un-American." It is not wise, he said, to oppose changes as such, but that bankers should "see to it that change, if and when it does come, shall preserve all that is good in the past and stick as closely as possible to the American pattern of things."

Banking is properly a conservative profession, he pointed out, and should cling to practices and principles of banking that are, and always have been fundamentally sound.

"It is to its credit that so large a group of its members never faltered, even in boom times, in their allegiance to those sound principles," he declared. "We probably owe our salvation from chaos to that fact."

BANKS AND COLLEGE LAUNCH NEW SCHOOL

Aims to Offer Studies in Advanced Banking Subjects to Bank Executives—Public Duties of Banks Stressed

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. — The Graduate School of Banking, an unprecedented educational project, operated under the joint auspices of the American Institute of Banking Section of the American Bankers Association and Rutgers University, with 220 enrolled students from 35 states and the District of Columbia, inaugurated here in June its first resident session.

The states represented and the number of registrants from each were as follows: Alabama, 2; Arkansas, 2; California, 2; Connecticut, 9; Delaware, 3; District of Columbia, 6; Florida, 2; Georgia, 3; Idaho, 1; Illinois, 8; Indiana, 2; Iowa 1; Kansas, 1; Kentucky, 2; Louisiana, 3; Maryland, 1; Massachusetts, 9; Michigan, 5; Minnesota, 1; Missouri, 5; Nebraska, 1; New Jersey, 31; New York, 50; North Carolina, 8; North Dakota, 1; Ohio, 7; Oklahoma, 1; Oregon, 2; Pennsylvania, 32; Rhode Island, 1; Texas, 5; Virginia, 6; Washington, 1; West Virginia, 1; Wisconsin, 4; Wyoming, 1.

The annual resident sessions of the graduate school will be supplemented between periods by continued extension work for the students at their homes. The purpose of the school is described as being to offer in a three year course a comprehensive approach to an advanced study of the various administrative problems in banking and trust institutions. The teaching procedure is a combination of the case system and the lecture discussion method.

The Curriculum

The curriculum embraces banking administrative problems and policies, bank investment problems, legal and managerial aspects of trust business, legal phases of bank administration and economic problems in the field of money and credit. The public relations and responsibilities of banks and methods for meeting these obligations are emphasized in the courses.

It is planned to set up similar schools in cooperation with other universities in various parts of the country. The school will add 200 registrants each year for two years until 600 are enrolled.

The trustees of the Educational Foundation of the American Bankers Association have set aside funds from the foundation to grant 100 loan scholarships of $150 each to qualified applicants for attendance at the school.

GOLD PAN LODGE PROVES POPULAR

During the summer season the Gold Pan Lodge, a popular Camptonville resort has planned a series of Sunday afternoon entertainments, the first of which will be held Sunday, August 4. Many novel features are included in the program which promises to be entertaining to young and old. The main feature will be a "beer shoot" where the many good shots of the community will have a chance to win a case of beer, instead of a turkey which is the usual prize at a shooting match.

The Gold Pan Lodge is becoming increasingly popular as a place for community folks to gather and enjoy their leisure time and many tourists make this an over night stopping place.
